

The Howgills and Limestone Trail

A PENNINE JOURNEY
FROM SETTLE TO HADRIAN'S WALL
IN WAINWRIGHT'S FOOTSTEPS

Edited by David and Heather Pitt

A Pennine Journey ..... in September 1938, A. Wainwright made a solitary walk through the Pennines. The following year he wrote up an account of this walk, which was eventually published as A Pennine Journey in 1986. This pictorial guide is a re-creation of his walk taking a route that Wainwright might have chosen if he was planning it today. The route is 247 miles long and with maps and illustrations inspired by the work of the great AW & this labour of love is essential for all those who wish to follow in Wainwright's footsteps.

HOWGILLS AND LIMESTONE TRAIL
A NEW WALK IN THE FOOTSTEPS
OF ALFRED WAINWRIGHT'S

David & Heather Pitt

The Howgills and Limestone Trail is a new 76 mile long distance walk from Kirkby Stephen to Settle through a picturesque area of Cumbria and North Yorkshire - with a short diversion into Lancashire. The Trail takes its inspiration from Wainwright's Walks on the Howgill Fells and Walks in Limestone Country and is a worthy sequel to A Pennine Journey. It can be linked with the final stages of the Pennine Journey between Kirkby Stephen to Settle to form a 134 mile circular walk.

A PENNINE JOURNEY
THE STORY OF A LONG WALK IN 1938

This is the current paperback edition of Alfred Wainwright's original narrative of his 1938 walk from Settle to Hadrian's Wall and back. Eric Robson, Chairman of the Wainwright Society, who interviewed AW for his BBC TV appearances in the 1980s, said recently that in his opinion 'A Pennine Journey' was Alfred Wainwright's "best single book. . . . a wonderful piece of writing"
A copy of this book can be ordered below for an additional £9 incl. P&P.

Revisions of the Pictorial Guides

Over the last few years Chris Jesty has been painstakingly at work revising the Lakeland fells pictorial guides which were followed by the Pennine Way Companion and the Coast to Coast Walk pictorial guides.

Now he has reached the end of this tremendous task, which had the approval of AW, with the revisions of Walks on the Howgill Fells and Walks in Limestone Country.

So 2014 saw the re-emergence of these lovely guides, published by Frances Lincoln Ltd.
